

Dan Gjerde

Mendocino County Fourth District Supervisor, Appointed by the Board of Supervisors

Dan Gjerde has served as the Mendocino County Fourth District Supervisor since January of 2013, was appointed to the Board of Retirement in 2014, was elected Vice Chair of the Board of Retirement in 2015, and was elected as Chair of the Board of Retirement in 2016. Prior to becoming a Supervisor he served 14 years as a member of the Fort Bragg City Council, helping to secure millions of dollars to repave streets, repair parks and restore pride in the community.

As a Supervisor, Dan's appointments also include serving the CSAC Coastal Counties Regional Association, the Caspar Transfer Station Coordinating Committee, the Mendocino Council of Governments (MCOG), the Mendocino Transit Authority (MTA), and the Workforce Development Board (WDB). He sees his work as an opportunity to help people realize their aspirations, for themselves and their community. Dan's family has lived on the Mendocino Coast for six generations.
