<sup>1</sup> The retrial for each of the three co-defendants resulted in another mistrial. The first trial resulted in jury split of 9 guilty to 3 not guilty. The retrial resulted in a jury split that was the exact opposite – 9 not guilty to 3 guilty. The defendants were ordered back to court on November 13, 2020 for further proceedings. However, because of pandemic concerns in the Ukiah courthouse, that November 13th date cannot happened and a new date will be scheduled.

<sup>2</sup> Given the facts that defendant was originally charged with a felony, that the jury returned a guilty verdict on the lesser included misdemeanor, and the resulting jail sentence was nevertheless roughly equivalent to a 24 month local prison sentence, this result is now counted and weighed as a draw.
