Re: Response to Grand Jury Report

Thank you for sharing the report, Doing Community Service I have minimal contact with the programs reviewed. We have had some work done by the crews and the work was completely satisfactory.

I have never visited either of the camps and I am not familiar with their operation. The findings listed seem appropriate to the mission. I have no problems with any of the findings.

I agree with the 3 recommendations of the Grand Jury. I think the CCC program is a great alternative to prison for appropriate offenders. It is also cost effective and provides education and training in an era where rehabilitation has diminished in the correctional system.
