Kim Turner makes motion to approve final draft of Juvenile Justice Realignment Block Grant plan and moving forward in presenting to the full body JJCC.

Kate Gaston seconds the motion.

Further discussion held.

Katie Ford and David Barrett abstain from voting.

Motion passes

Izen Locatelli recommends everyone in this group be present for the JJCC meeting on Friday, September 24, 2021.

4. State Implementation Updates

Izen states there has been little updates to any of the below topics since last meeting.

4a) Legislative Update

4b) Chief Probation Officers of California (CPOC) Update

4c) SB 823 County Collaboration Consortium Workgroup Update

Izen Locatelli still pursuing the consortium model and still recommending as part of this plan that we extend 1% of our realignment funds to join the consortium. Izen will be making that request of the full JJCC for transparency purposes.

4d) Host and Partner Counties Secure Track Information Update

Izen Locatelli states we will most likely have regional partnerships for kids we are not able to offer services to. Our hall would potentially be available, a couple of slots, to like counties. Izen Locatelli believes Sonoma County has entered in to an agreement with the State to be a regional hub for females and possibly sex offender program. The rest are in the Central Valley and Southern California.

Adjournment:

No further meetings scheduled at this time.

Meeting adjourned at 3:30 p.m.
