Discussion of Need for Community Support for Youth with Behavioral Health Challenges

- Izen Locatelli discussed issues with increasing number of youth at Juvenile Hall with more serious behaviors. Izen is meeting with Senator McGuire this weekend regarding issues with juveniles. Legislation has taken away “teeth” to hold parents’ accountable for kids’ behaviors, such as no more WIC 601 for truancy. New legislation- 504. Izen will present at the November PCCY meeting.
- Discussed issues with multigenerational non-parenting and need to invest in upstream preventative measures that may not show returns for years, but will save on the backend down the road. Law Enforcement needs to be included in the discussion. Alice Langton-Sloan noted Tribal Governments will help if they know/hear about the problems. We need to propose what we need/want.
- FIRST 5 is sending out Triple P flyers to physicians/medical providers and will be providing Community Resiliency Model (CRM) support for providers in the community. Jade Aldrich noted Suicidal Grief Support Groups are available via zoom. Selena Ramos is offering trainings.
- Discussed PAL program- there are activities but no providers. Also need transportation to the activities. Cindi Condos noted lots of free or low cost resources in the community like trails and disc golf for kids. Cindi noted FIRST 5 literature and parenting class information is provided to clients during medical visits.

Next steps:

- Town Halls with Board of Supervisor members through the Family Resource Centers to get community input on what is needed (set 3 questions). Sheryn Hildebrand will create a poll to start the framework for townhall discussions.
- Invite Mendocino Transportation Agency to discuss transportation needs and how to get youth and families to activities.
- Look at how specific legislation regarding youth has impacted Mendocino County.
